

ST DUNSTAN'S CHURCHYARD, MAYFIELD

This historic Churchyard is consecrated ground and provides a resting place for all parishioners resident in Mayfield or Five Ashes at the time of their death

These regulations for new graves, headstones and their care and upkeep, are set out by Mayfield Parochial Church Council ("the PCC") based on the Chancellor's ⁽¹⁾ General Directions (re-issued April 2020) applicable to the Anglican Diocese of Chichester.

1 Required Permissions

Permission from the PCC is required for a new grave or headstone, monument, or memorial to be introduced into this Churchyard, or for any change to an existing grave. Application forms are provided by the Funeral Director and sent to the PCC at The Parish Office, 1st Floor, London House, High St, Mayfield TN20 6AQ.

The Vicar is happy to be consulted about appropriate design, wording and appearance etc. Restrictions are laid down by the Chancellor and it should be noted that inter alia pet names are not permitted on Headstones and memorials should not be in the shape of vases, hearts, or open books nor should incorporate photographs or portraits.

2 Maintenance of Graves

Bulbs and small annual plants may be planted in front of the headstone in the soil and cut flowers may be placed in removable sunken containers (preferably of unpolished aluminium and available from The Parish Office at a cost of £10 each) in the soil of any grave. However artificial flowers (except Remembrance Day poppies) or shrubs are not permitted. It is also not permitted to remove the grass turf or plant in a decorative manner over a grave.

Mementoes such as toys or little animals, statues or figures including cars etc or animals or windmills or similar are not permitted.

To facilitate the ease of maintenance of the Churchyard, the introduction of kerbs, railings, fencing or chippings is not allowed.

It is agreed that the PCC have the right to remove withered wreaths, cut flowers and plants, as well as mementoes which contravene these guidelines. The PCC will seek to return any such mementoes to the family.

3 Appeal

In case of disagreement with any decision of the PCC relating to the above, a Faculty, (equivalent to planning permission) may be sought from the Chancellor.

4 Notes

You are welcome to use water from the available butt near the cellar steps at the north-west corner of St Dunstan's.

Dog walkers are asked to use the public footpath to the east of the Churchyard and not the main path through the Churchyard as a sign of respect to all those who are visiting graves. The north end gate and bridge is for access only to visitors and is not a right of way into the private grounds of Mayfield School.

The Archbishop's Commission on Rural Areas encourages the PCC to create a natural habitat for wildlife and we do this in the summer months in the oldest and least visited parts of the Churchyard.
